

Donor Privacy Policy

Your privacy matters!

At OccuPaws Guide Dog Association, we respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal information. This policy explains what information we collect, how we use it, and how you can control it.

1. Information we may collect:
 - a. Name, mailing address, email, and phone number
 - b. Donation information (amount, date, payment method)
 - c. Communication preferences

This information helps us process donations, acknowledge gifts, send updates, and comply with legal requirements.

2. How We Use Your Information:
 - a. Process and thank you for your donations
 - b. Share updates about our programs, events and fundraising
 - c. Comply with legal and tax obligations

We do not sell or share your information for any purpose.

3. Access and Corrections

You can review or update your personal information we maintain about you. To do so, contact us at:

Treasurer@occupaws.org

4. Opt-Out of Sharing

If you do not want your information shared with third parties (except as needed for operational or legal purposes), please contact us. We will honor your request promptly.

5. Security

We use industry standard safeguards to protect your information, including secure servers and restricted access.

Questions? Please reach out to us via phone, email, or mail.